

This year we started off with quarantine and my brother wouldn't stop being mean my little sister thought that she was the queen 4 weeks later we got a puppy tiktoks were made and days overslept my mom and dad had prepped and prepped to clean the garage and the house top to bottom when they were finished it looked awesome we went to the store remembered our masks but everything there had such a high tax we went to get toilet paper But they had none there but wait i smell something in the air got to go moms making cooked pears.
